—All seasonable vegetables and country produce kept in stock at Smartt & Co's. Go there for your family supplies.
—Mr. M. F. McGregor, of Lynchburg, Tenn., was visiting relatives in this county last week, and gave the STANDARD a pleasant call while here.

—The corporation will put up six additional street lamps in a few days.
—Mrs. E. Owen, of Laverne, is visiting the family of her brother, Mr. R. H. Mason, at the Warren House.
—Mrs. A. B. Treadwell and daughters, of Memphis, after a ten days' visit to River Cliff, returned home Wednesday.
—A gold ear ring found at the tent last Monday, can be had at this office by describing property and paying for this notice.
—Miss Kate Bronson and Miss Narcissa Rhea, two sparkling Sparta beauties, spent the week with Miss Emma Wood.
—Mr. Ed. Reese, an old tobacco merchant of Nashville, but now engaged in banking at Alexandria, was attending the meeting here this week.
—Rev. F. L. Leeper is expected home today, and will hold the usual services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and night.
—We have had white frosts here several mornings this week, and vegetation is beginning to take on "the sear, the yellow leaf."
—Misses Maggie and Laura Biles, of Sparta, and Miss Hattie Brown, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Biles during the meeting.
—Don't punish your horse with an old worn out set of harness. Go to W. S. Maddux's and get a new set. They are cheap enough for anybody to buy.
—Miss Helen Lytle of Rutherford county, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Colville, here during the week, and attending the camp meeting.
—Messrs. B. R. Bryan and Thos. R. Hughes left here Thursday morning on a trip through East Tennessee in the interest of the Atkins Mill Stone Dress.
—Mrs. Rembert and children, and Miss Cago, who have been at the Warren House several weeks, left for their home in Helena, Ark., Wednesday.
—Sagar & Bass have just received a big new stock of Saddles, and they don't charge a cent for showing them; in fact they like to do it. Call and take a look.
—Prof. Bell returned from Wilson county last Monday, but has been confined to his room at the Warren House with sickness since Wednesday.
—Miss Ella Ransom of Rutherford county, and Miss Daisy Biles of Goodbars, have been the guests of Miss Herminia Jeannaire during the Sam Jones revival.
—Hon. R. S. Alcorn, of Putnam county, the Democratic candidate for State Senator from this district, was mixing among the voters of this county here last Saturday.

—Mr. Thomas Smith, formerly of this place, but for the past few years of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his home-folks here. Tom's many friends will be glad to see him.
—Tullahoma Guardian: Col. John H. Savage "the old man of the mountains" who spoke here Monday night, is full of the fire of his youth and is still as eloquent and aggressive as of old.
—The Falcon Roller Mills, of this place are paying one dollar per bushel for wheat now. This is the first time in many years that wheat has reached this figure here. Corn dodgers are growing in popularity.
—We are headquarters for first class Boots and Shoes. We now have a line of W. L. Douglass' $4.00 hand-sewed shoes, as perfect fitting, as much style, and will wear as well as any $6.00 shoe on the market.
J. C. M. Ross & Son.
—Mr. A. B. Hamilton left on Thursday for Grayson county, Texas, to join his family, who preceded him several weeks ago. We wish him much success and happiness in his new home.
—Attention of all our readers is called to the extraordinary offer of Carbolic Smoke Ball Co., of Memphis. Sample package of Debellator free to every purchaser of Smoke Ball. Sure cure for colds, catarrh, asthma, etc. Read their advertisement.
—Among the visiting ministers in attendance upon the big meeting here, we noticed Rev. W. T. Haggard of Tracy City, Rev. W. H. Klyce of Bell Buckle, Revs. J. C. Putnam and J. H. Zivley of Tullahoma, Rev. S. M. Parks of Winchester, and Dr. E. Marks of Manchester.
—Brief and brilliant were the days of Haggard's Restaurant. Jim found out that there wasn't a gold mine in it, and he put up his entire stock and furnishings at auction Wednesday morning and closed them out. All that now remains to tell of the glory that has been is the bright blue paint on the front of the house.
—Chattanooga Times: Hon. Columbus Marchbanks arrived in the city yesterday and rented an office in the White building, corner of Seventh and Walnut streets, and he will take up his residence in this city shortly after election. Col. Marchbanks stands deservedly high as a lawyer, and will be a welcome acquisition to the Chattanooga bar.
—The Tennessee Conference of the Methodist church will meet at Fayetteville in about ten days. McMinnville ought to have the next session of this body, and can get it if the proper effort is made. We hope the church here will take steps in this direction at once. We feel assured of McMinnville's ability to entertain the body in that hospitable spirit for which our people are noted.

—Scribner's Magazine for October is notable for the varied interest of its contents and the eminence of its contributors in their special fields of work, among them being Lester Wallace, the Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Robert Louis Stevenson, Professor Arthur T. Hadley, and H. H. Boyesen. The illustrations present an equal variety of subject and treatment. The number contains many articles of striking interest, and it will furnish any one with a day or two of most pleasant and instructive reading.
—The October Wide Awake is another very delightful number, containing many pleasing and carefully prepared articles. This number gives the Prospectus for 1889—announcing a serial by Trowbridge, "The Adventures of David Crane," and another by Margaret Sidney, author of the famous "Five Little Peppers," entitled "The Peppers Midway." There are two other serials also, by Susan Coolidge and Charles R. Talbot. WIDE AWAKE is $2.40 a year. A great deal for a little money. D. Lothrop Company, Boston. Send five cents for a specimen.
—Rev. Sam Jones gave some churches and church members in this county a well deserved drubbing for their stinginess. The fact was developed during the meeting that there are churches in Warren county with from thirty to one hundred members, which do not pay but from ten to thirty dollars a year for the support of the gospel. We thought some town people were stingy enough about paying the preacher, but according to this showing the average negro in McMinnville, who hasn't a real good suit of clothes to his name, and works for forty or fifty cents a day, does far better than scores of well-to-do farmers in the county who own good farms.
Time.
Carson & Doty fired another kiln of lime this week. It will be ready for delivery next Tuesday.
